* Loyola clinches No. 10 seed due to forfeits by Richmond; ^ Per the guidelines, since the three tied teams did not all play each other, the seedings are determined by goal differential against teams seeded above the tied teams (Duke, Georgetown) which the tied teams all played. Virginia receives the No. 4 seed for holding a +1 goal differential (-2 against Duke, +3 against Georgetown). Since JMU and UNC did not play each other, the goal differential against Duke and Georgetown break the tie with JMU earning the No. 5 seed -6 to -14.
