* Virginia clinches the No. 8 position due to a 10-9 win over NC State; ^ UNC claims the No. 5 position due to a 14-9 win over Georgetown; % As Navy did not play Virginia Tech, the tie for first place can not be broken by head-to-head play. The next highest seeded common opponent is used to break the three-way tie for first. As all three teams played North Carolina (UNC 15, Virginia Tech 8; Navy 8, UNC 7; Maryland 12, UNC 8), and Maryland has the best goal differential among the three, Maryland claims the No. 1 seed. The tiebreakers then revert back to head-to-head, but Navy and Virginia Tech did not play. As Maryland now holds the No. 1 seed, the tiebreaker is goal differential against the highest seeded common opponent. Navy lost to Virginia Tech (13-11 L) for a -2 goal differential, while Virginia Tech defeated Maryland 8-3 to claim the No. 2 seed; #Loyola was on break the week of the championship and the teams elected to allow them to not compete in the division championship.
