* To break the tie between Western Washington, Oregon "B" and Seattle, the goal differential in games between the three teams is used with Seattle (+7) earning the No. 4 seed. Once the tie is broken among the three, per the Tie Breaker System for three or more teams (If more than two teams are tied in won/loss records, goal differentials among the teams tied serves as the tiebreaker to determine the best teams within the group until only two teams remain. The final two teams use their head-to-head results to break the tie), the head-to-head match-up between Oregon "B" and Western Washington (a 7-6 Oregon "B" victory) is used to settle the question of the fifth seed.
